CRIKVENICA

KVARNER

If you ask travellers what attracts them to Crikvenica, they will mention the clean and beautiful sea, traffic accessibility and a healthy climate that benefits the respiratory system. And indeed, when you descend from the highway towards the Crikvenica Riviera, you will be amazed by the beauty of the pebbly and sandy beaches that shine like pearls on the turquoise canvas of the sea, as well as by the air imbued with the aromatic combination of salt and Mediterranean herbs.

And when you start exploring the local fabric of life, you will fall in love with the cheerful spirit of the locals, the flavours of local cuisine and lively events.

An aerial photograph of a coastal town, likely Crikvenica, showing a large marina filled with boats, a sandy beach, and a dense residential area with red-tiled roofs. The town is situated on a peninsula with mountains in the background. A white, scalloped-edged box is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing a list of five experiences.

2. Strolls along the waterfront and the old town
3. Romantic walk along the Love Path through a scenic pine forest

KARLOVAC

Karlovac is nicknamed the “town of encounters” as it is positioned at the crossroads of major transport routes and four different rivers. Its historic centre has the shape of a star, and it is surrounded by lush parks, gardens, and river banks which lend him a special charm and distinct identity. There aren't many places where you could swim in four rivers in just one day, and then enjoy a glass of the “fifth river” – the local beer. Perhaps while watching the sun go down at the Dubovac Castle. Still, not many people stop in Karlovac on their way to Zagreb or the coast. But that's good news for you. You'll have more peace and quiet to discover it slowly, drop by drop.
